

Your Advocacy Philosophy Worksheet

The capstone of the Universal Core. One page, in your own voice, for yourself — write it as if you'll reread it in five years.

Why You're Here

Write the fight or moment that brought you here — the story of self, plainly, for yourself.

Who You Are

Your advocate type

Name your type and the mode you'll sustain.

What that means

What does that mean for the fights you'll take, the roles you'll fill, and who you'll partner with?

How You'll Fight

Name two or three principles you'll hold about HOW you advocate — your ethical lines, how you'll treat opponents and the people you serve.

Your Line

Name the one thing you will never do to win, even when crossing it would work.

What Lasts

What you'll have built

What do you want to have built or changed, when you look back?

Who you'll have grown

What advocates do you want to have grown, who'll carry the work past you?

Before you close the book

Written in my own honest voice, not a summary of the curriculum.

Includes my why, my mode, my principles, and my line.

Kept somewhere I'll find it and reread it in my hardest weeks.
